

Okanagan Hockey Community Foundation provides financial aid to student-athletes who would benefit from attending summer hockey camp. Financial aid is provided to low income families or families that may have unexpected financial hardships.

OHCF has partnered with the Daryl K. Seaman Canadian Hockey Fund to provide 20 summer hockey camp bursaries in Kelowna, Edmonton, Calgary and Whitby. OHCF would like to partner with the local school districts in these areas to identify families that would benefit from this financial aid.

Doc Seaman Amateur Sport Grants

Daryl K. "Doc" Seaman has been described as a hero, icon, pioneer, philanthropist, visionary and legend.

On the list of his many achievements, he was an original owner of the Calgary Flames and was instrumental in bringing them to Calgary in 1980. Among his many accomplishments, Doc was also known for his wartime experiences as a World War II pilot, and for his civic contribution as a member of the Royal Commission on Economic Union and Development Prospects for Canada, 1982-1985. Doc received two honorary Doctor of Laws degrees and was appointed an Officer of the Order of Canada. His philanthropic giving ranged from supporting medical education to funding entrepreneurial initiatives. Doc's love for ranching, hockey and sports, and his dedication to community will leave a lasting legacy for years to come.

The legacy of legendary philanthropist Doc Seaman lives on through the Daryl K. Seaman Canadian Hockey Fund, an endowment fund administered by Calgary Foundation.

Student-Athletes Requirements

The camps offered by Okanagan Hockey Camps are not entry level camps. Applicants must have previous hockey experience and access to full hockey equipment.
